SAFE LANDING Grand-finale

*But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. *And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship. *For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, *Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. Act 27:21-24*

We have study this scripture and topic all through the month of March yet I want us to sieve out more lessons from the life of Apostle Paul:

1. Stability: We need spiritual stability in other not to be angry when things (disorderliness) happen. When we are relegated or totally rejected. We need stability to be able to remain calm and not flare up, but cautious and still follow the Holy Spirit and trust in the Lord for safety. Apostle Paul Said: But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.
- Maturity: Means ability to withstand terrible situations unchanging; holding a particular thing with the fingers of your hearts even when it's slipping away. Ability to remain positive while so many others had gone negative or out of course. From now we all need to be mature and withstand forces threatening our lives. Apostle Paul Said: And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.
- Healthy Talks: One way to show that we are not off balance is healthy talks. Speaking fine, speaking well and still sound and sensible in the midst of battle or when others jitter. Apostle Paul Said: . **For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,*

- Injecting Life To A dying Heart: Paul was not lying in verse 24 but their are people that have been visited but very afraid to discharge it. Apostle Paul Said: . **For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,*
